By Carl E. Venstrom

More than 30 people attended the San Joaquin School District's Board of Trustees' monthly meeting last week where a packed agenda—varying from a statement of district policy to the adopting of a summer school program—was discussed and approved.

Approval of the hiring of 11 teachers for the 1968-'69 school year was given by the board along with the approval of two gardeners to be added to the district. Eight teachers resignations were accepted.

The board also passed approval to accept $50 from the University Park Teen Club for books. April 5th was approved as the cut-off date for applications for the Assistant Superintendent of Business.

Superintendent Ralph A. Gates reported to the board that the La Paz Junior High School is 17 per cent behind schedule because of rain. A letter was presented to the Board by Gates by a parent—who had recently moved to the area—on the wonderful treatment to her children by the principal and teachers of the Ralph A. Gates Elementary School.

Superintendent Gates also read a letter of explanation from Superintendent Jack S. Roper, of Saddleback Junior College District, on the $9.5 million dollar bond election. Endorsement of the bond issue for the JC district was given by the board of trustees of the San Joaquin School District.

Final approval was also given to a statement of philosophy for the school district.

Gary Shinkle, principal of the Irvine School, presented the results of a study of class schedules which gave approval, in the main, of this year's class schedule both at the Irvine and La Paz schools.

Curriculum approval was given by the board of trustees at the close of Shinkle's report. Dr. William D. Stocks, assistant superintendent of schools, said this approval would enable the school administration to staff teachers in the two schools.

A three page petition was presented by Gates for the parents of the Irvine School who requested the Board of Trustees that a late bus be made available so their children could participate in after-school athletic programs.

Dr. Stocks said that bus transportation for students interested in other activities as well as athletics should be considered at this time. Board President W. G. Staples said "we must establish schedules so students and drivers will know where they are supposed to be and when."

Principal Gary Shinkle said that one problem presented here is that "students taking part in after school activities could easily be living throughout the district and could involve 1½ hour bus trips."

The board agreed to consider, at a later date, what after school activities—if any—should be offered.

Approval of a summer school was given by the Board. Dr. Stocks had previously recommended a summer school for remedial programs, enrichment programs and gifted student programs. He recommended grades one through five at each of the five elementary schools. Parents will provide transportation.

Board member Gratian Bidart requested an evaluation, at the end of the summer, by each of the principals involved.

Approval was also given by the board of trustees for the school district to pay up to $30 to the County Superintendent of Schools for educational exhibits at the Orange County Fair on July 16 through 21 of this year.

The RANCHO REPORTER went to press before the final results of yesterday's $9.5 million bond issue for the Saddleback Junior College District were available. Complete results of the voting will be printed in next week's RANCHO REPORTER.

Temple Eilat Sets Seder

Temple Eilat, which serves all of southern Orange County, will present its First Family Seder Night Friday, April 12 beginning at 6:30 p.m. at Kaplan's Restaurant in South Coast Plaza.

Harvey Kaplan, of Mission Viejo, will conduct the Passover Seder which will be held the first night of Pesach. During the service the story of the flight of the Children of Israel is retold.

Information or reservations may be obtained from Mrs. Selma Cooney, 496-5923 or Mrs. Bud Nagel; 837-7678.

Mission Viejo's Cinco De Mayo Festival Set

Rousing music will fill the air when the marching band starts things off on the right foot at the Mission Viejo Cinco de Mayo Fiesta on Sunday, May 5.

The festival, originally a high school P.T.O. project, has turned into a community wide endeavor. Civic and service organizations in Mission Viejo will actively participate by sponsoring some of the activities to be held on the high school campus.

Cinco de Mayo is a traditional Mexican fiesta, according to Senor Raul Galarza, Mexican Consul General, who will be guest of honor. He is furnishing films of Mexico for free continuous showing during the afternoon, and is also bringing a troupe of Mexican dancers to add an authentic touch to the proceedings.

There will be continuous entertainment on an outdoor stage from noon to sundown, and after dark a parade and fireworks exhibit will be held in the stadium. One of the multi-purpose rooms will be given over to American music, rock and roll style, with alternating bands playing for free dancing. Advance sales of adult and children's tickets for the dinner to be served in the cafeteria and adjoining patio are moving briskly.

Local artists are being invited to set up exhibits on "Olvera Street", which will also feature booths with games and food to provide plenty of excitement for everyone.

Ed Clement, chairman of the event, has announced the following committee appointments: parade chairman, Harvey Stearn; booths, Vince and Jane Esposito; entertainment, John and Virginia Marosz; food, Marilyn Clement and Ruth Dicks; dessert, Vera Lindley; and tickets, Ed Eggers.

Saddleback Trustees Clash Over Architects Contract

"The Board was willing to approve the contract the same evening it received it since the county counsel's office studied the document carefully", said Saddleback trustee Vice President Michael Collins today.

Saddleback's board meeting last week was the scene of a heated discussion between trustee Alyn Brannon of Area 1 (Tustin) and Board Chairman Hans Vogel. Brannon refused to sign the contract until he could read it completely.

Brannon told Vogel, "I will not sign this contract tonight. I won't ever sign a contract until I have read it." Vogel countered by explaining Saddleback officials and the county counsel have read and approved the contract.

Trustee Collins expressed the view that the other Board members felt action of the contract the same evening it was presented was influenced by two factors. First, much of the work of the architects covered in the contract was already completed; and second, since the buildings are relocatable our architects do not actually design the buildings. Collins believes, "the Board has a good understanding of the contract and it was advisable to pass it."

Following a half-hour recess when Brannon and Collins closely examined the complex contract, the Saddleback trustees approved the contract 4-0. Trustee Louis Zitnik was ill and not able to attend.

The contract names Ellerbrock, Koteles, Fox and Associates of Newport Beach, and Adrian Wilson Associates of Los Angeles as architects for the construction of an interim campus. Cost of this facility will be $685,207.

MV GOP'ers Request War Declaration Or Withdrawal

The war in Vietnam should be recognized as a state of war or if not the U.S. forces should be withdrawn immediately.

Mission Viejo's Republican Women's Club, Federated passed a resolution expressing these sentiments at their March 20 meeting.

The GOP Women believe the present conflict in Vietnam is at a stalemate and we are fighting an undeclared war in that Asian country. A declaration of war would implement blockading of ports, strategic bombing, and severing of communication lines the MV Republicans hope.

The local group "zealously proposes that the arduous conflict being supported by the United States of America be recognized a state of war by Congress and subscribed to by President Johnson." The GOP women further urged "that if a state of war is not recognized that United States Fighting Forces be withdrawn immediately."

Local Rafferty For Us Senate Group Needs Help

The City Chairmen for the El Toro, Laguna North, Mission Viejo and Laguna Hills have announced that April 8th was the "Kick Off" date in the area for Dr. Max Rafferty's Campaign for the U.S. Senate.

The Chairman is Robert Bevacqua, Vice-President of the Saddle-Back Republican Assembly, and 1967 Treasurer of the 35th Congressional District. Co-Chairman is Mrs. Michael T. Collins of Laguna Hills.

Bevacqua is asking for all Rafferty supporters to call City Headquarters at 837-2726 or 837-5206 and Volunteer to help Dr. Max Rafferty in this campaign. All types of help is needed. Phoners, precinct workers, office help and support.

California College of Medicine Begins Building

Construction is scheduled to begin this week on an interim office and laboratory building to accommodate the first stage of the move of the California College of Medicine to the University of California, Irvine.

Submitting the apparent low bid among three bidders for the project was Viking Construction Co. of Anaheim, with a total building cost of $489,500.

The single story, concrete block building, with 16,000 assignable square feet of floor space, will be located west of California Ave. at Bridge Road, adjacent to the future site of the UCI medical sciences complex.

Scheduled for completion in September, the building will accommodate the CCM administrative staff. A second interim building will be completed in fall of 1969 to accommodate the basic sciences of the medical school. Negotiations are currently in progress to locate the clinical sciences at the Orange County Medical Center.

A major medical school building is being planned on the campus for completion in 1972.

He's ready to serve you. He's highly trained. He's good at his job. That's why he works for us.

And his job is becoming more important all the time. We're an investor-owned company. And that's like having two employers. You have to satisfy your customers, the people who buy your service, by being efficient. And you have to be efficient to satisfy your owners. For they're the people who invest in your business and make the service possible.

This means we work hard to give the best possible service, at reasonable rates. Investor ownership is that "extra step"—why we have servicemen who are extra courteous and skillful, as well as being efficient.

It's the reason we look for economies in every way possible and have been able to reduce gas rates six times in the last five years.

It's also one of the reasons our business is growing. And how!

EDITORIAL: Local Participation And Planning Vital

This newspaper went to press before the final results of last night's $9.5 million bond election for the Saddleback Junior College District were available.

We hope our citizens gave the nod of approval for the new district, since this will get the JC district off to a good start. If approval wasn't given we all will just have to work harder the next time a JC election comes around.

It is imperative that we support our public schools since they determine the type citizen we will have within a very few years. At the present writing more than 50 per cent of our population is under the age of 25. The environment these youngsters grow up in and the opportunity given will determine, to a great extent, what type of voting citizen we have, come ten years from now.

This weekly newspaper began publication on November 16, 1966, and the headline for the first editorial was, "To Work, Dream, Build and Create." The editorial congratulated the "Pioneers" who had, through choice, joined us in creating some brand new communities.

Perhaps this would be a good time to point out some of the tremendous responsibilities that go with moving into, and establishing, a new area.

The State of California has established what has been referred to as "an instant University" with UCI. On the local level it is our responsibility to support the San Joaquin School District which includes all the elementary schools and junior high schools in the El Toro, Irvine, Mission Viejo, University Park and Laguna Hills areas.

It is also our responsibility to support the Tustin Union High School District which serves our area as well as the city of Tustin.

In addition to providing adequate schools we must—within the near future—provide recreation areas for our youth and adults, and see that our beautification programs continue to provide us with desirable surroundings.

Never does an edition of our newspaper go to press without an appeal from some civic group, church, school, youth program or adult program that wants your involvement. We hope you continue to join and take an active part in our community.

Through participation and planning for the future now, our area will continue to grow, prosper and be an area that we all can continue to be proud of.

EDITORIAL: Congratulations To El Toro Marines

Congratulations to the U.S. Marines on the El Toro Base who recently took part in celebrating the 25th anniversary of the local military establishment.

The base was established during World War II for the west coast defense of our country. And the base and its personnel have been protecting us ever since.

The base is busy at the present time since many pilots and ground fighters are shipped to the Far East and Vietnam from El Toro. Many heroes have passed at the El Toro base.

And many of these marines—after their tour of duty or after their retirement—have stayed on in Orange County and have helped us in developing the County.

Many of the marines who have families are our neighbors here in the greater El Toro-Mission Viejo areas. Many of us are aware of some of the losses and worries of these families.

This is to say "thanks" to our local marine family and to let you know that we enjoy having you close by and that we took note of your 25th anniversary and wish to say "good luck to all of you for the future."

Rancho Players Announce "The Crucible" Players

By Bunny Hammer

Art Gordon, director, has selected his cast for the Rancho Players next production, "The Crucible", by Arthur Miller. Heading the cast of this award-winning drama will be Larry Grannis as John Proctor.

Larry comes to us with his beautifully resonant voice from radio station KWIZ. He also enjoys his job as disk-jockey but, he says his first love is the theater. Gloria Newton will play Elizabeth, John's wife. Gloria is following her success in "Guys and Dolls" with a more serious role. A very versatile actress.

Karen Hildreth has the fascinating role of Abigail Williams, the girl most responsible for the Salem witch trials. Other members of the cast include: Frank Dettenrieder as Rev. Parris, Myrtle Daniels as Tituba, Judy Dettenrieder as Susanna, Ilene Gordon as Mercy

Lewis, Dannielle Kennedy as Mary Warren, Lorrie Beasley as Betty Parris, Curt Hammer as Giles Corey, Chris Cooper as Rev. Hale and Frank Richards as the Deputy Governor Danforth.

Performances of this powerful drama will be given at the Olivewood School in the cafetorium in El Toro. It will begin May 30th and continue for two weekends. Tickets will be available through Mrs. Marjorie Rushforth, 830-2915.

Island House Available To Organizations For Meetings

All non-profit organizations are welcome to reserve Island House at Fashion Island in Newport Beach for meetings and luncheons, according to Kent A. Berge, manager of the $20 million shopping complex.

"The glass-wall structure is available to any social, business, professional, or service organization which needs a place to conduct meetings," he said.

Island House has recently been completely decorated with wall to wall carpeting, floor-to-ceiling drapes, air conditioning, rostrum and a sound system. It also has complete kitchen facilities including a double-door refrigerator, range, and oven, and double sink. The building, which has a seating capacity of 100 persons, is located on the southerly part of the mall.

"Island House is the Irvine Company's way of thanking Orange County for the wonderful acceptance Fashion Island has received since it was completed in September," Berge said.

Reservations for the free meeting facility may be made by contacting the Fashion Island Social Director at (714) 644-2020.

Kiwanis Hear Bailey On Teacher Education; Pancake Breakfast Set

By Carl E. Venstrom

Guest speaker for the regular meeting of the Kiwanis Club of Mission Viejo last week was Dr. Kenneth Bailey, Director of Teacher Training for the University of California at Irvine.

Bailey was introduced to the local service group by Dr. William Stocks, assistant superintendent of schools with the San Joaquin School District. Stocks is also a member of the local Kiwanis club.

Bailey spoke to the local service club on the duties of the Curriculum Commission of the State of California. He has been a member of this Commission for the past 14 years. Chief among the Commission's duties, said Bailey, is on the selection of text books for the elementary schools throughout the State of California.

The speaker also traced the role of the printing division of State of California in producing these text books.

Bill Wells, president of the local Kiwanis Club, reported that the Board of Directors of the local Kiwanis, had selected Saturday, May 25, for the first annual pancake breakfast to be held in the parking lot of La Plaza Plaza in Mission Viejo.

Otto Guli and George Dicks, both of Mission Viejo, are in charge of the pancake breakfast. Chuck Waltman, of El Toro, is in charge of contacting different youth organizations to help sell tickets. Hours for the breakfast will be from 7 to 11 a.m.

UCI's UNIVERSITY CHORUS works under their director, Maurice Allard during their annual Easter season concert held at the Irvine campus on April 5. The Anteaater chorus sang several classic Easter songs that dated back to the 15th century. Director Maurice Allard also directs the University Chamber Singers.

Easter Concert Held By University Chorus

An Easter season concert was presented by the University Chorus and Chamber Singers at the University of California, Irvine on April 5, under the direction of Maurice Allard.

The all sacred program features "Stabat Mater" by Poulenc and Easter Cantata No. 4 "Christ Lay in Todesbanden" (Christ Lay in Bonds of Death) by J. S. Bach.

Poulenc's "Stabat Mater" characterizes the modern French composer's style, distinguished by its opulent sensuality and sharp contrasts in tempo, mood, and dynamics.

The Bach Easter Cantata #4 featured soloists, Delreen Hafenrichter, soprano; Carol Boelter, mezzo soprano; Melvin Brown, tenor; and Alan Pitt, bass.

Delreen Hafenrichter recently appeared in UCI's production of "Cosi Fan Tutte" and also won first prize in the Orange County Young Artists Contest.

"Missa Pange Lingua" a rarely heard mass from the 15th century by the great Netherlands' composer, Josquin de Prez, was performed by the University Chamber Singers.

Melvin Brown has appeared as soloist with Roger Wagner on national and international tours.

"Never Too Late" Opens Tonight at Playhouse

"Never Too Late," called By Broadway critics "a good old-fashioned farce," will open at the Laguna Playhouse on April 10 for a three week run.

Howard "Hap" Graham, well-known Lagunan, will direct the Sumner Arthur Long comedy hit which starred Maureen O'Sullivan and Paul Ford in its three year Broadway run.

The play concerns the explosion in a quiet suburban household when "Mother" announces she is pregnant — much to the consternation of her husband, Harry, their daughter, Kate, and her "boob" of a husband, Charlie. Kate and Charlie are still living at home which alone is enough to drive Harry up the wall without the prospect of a little stranger's arrival.

Joe Wilson of Corona del Mar, often seen on Orange County stages, plays the harried husband and father—again—to-be. His wife, is Margaret Merritt, once a popular player on stages a little further away the Phillippines.

"Never Too Late" will play Wednesdays, through Saturdays, April 10 through 27. Curtain at 8:30 p.m. Call the Laguna Playhouse, (714) 494-8061, for reservations. Box office open after 1 p.m.

SCATS Set For Boosters

The Boosters Club of Mission Viejo High School have invited the Southern California Acro Team (SCATS) on April 17th at 7:30 p.m. to perform for the local group.

Stan Johnson, president of the Booster's Club, said today that the public is invited to attend. The performance will take place in the multi-purpose room of the Mission Viejo High School.

Myles Huard, a Mission Viejo resident and a member of the Kiwanis Club of Mission Viejo, is sponsoring the gymnastics program for the 17th of April. Huard is also interested in starting up a local group of SCATS to be sponsored by the local, Kiwanis service club.

IN LAGUNA HILLS MEET . . . The South Coast Community Hospital $2,000,000 Expansion Fund drive is well under way at Leisure World, Laguna Hills, as Special Gifts committee leadership was announced. At a recent meeting were (left to right) R. G. Hawley, Harry Schafer, (both Vice-Chairmen) Dr. Clifford Gilles, Chairman of the Committee, and Harold Winn, a vice-Chairman. Also named as Vice-Chairmen were George Biggar and Robert Seckler.

Laguna Hills Special Gifts Head Named For Hospital Campaign

Dr. Clifford L. Gilles has accepted the post of Chairman of the Laguna Hills area Special Gifts Committee of the South Coast Community Hospital Expansion Fund campaign, it was announced in a meeting at campaign headquarters recently. The Special Gifts Committee, combined with the General Gifts drive already underway, is seeking to raise $2,000,000 which is needed for the addition of 126 new beds and supportive facilities to the severely overcrowded hospital.

The Special Gifts phase of the fund-raising appeal is designed to reach individuals or organizations who are able to make substantial contributions toward the hospital campaign. Dr. Gilles, in accepting the position, announced that four other Laguna Hills residents have already agreed to serve with him as Vice-Chairmen on the Special Gifts Committee. They are George Biggar, R. G. Hawley, Harry Schafer and Harold Winn.

These Vice-Chairmen are now actively enlisting the aid of more volunteers from the Laguna Hills area to help in the fund-raising drive.

Dr. Gilles has been a resident of Laguna Hills since 1965 when he retired from his practice of Internal Medicine in Beverly Hills, California. Prior to his coming to California, Dr. Gilles was a practicing physician in Kansas City, Missouri, and Chief of the Medical Staff at the Kansas City General Hospital. He is a former faculty member of the University of Kansas Medical School.

Dr. Floyd L. Wergeland, who is honorary chairman of the campaign, was present at the committee meeting and was able to answer some questions that are of concern to Laguna Hills residents. When asked why people in the Laguna Hills area should support a hospital in South Laguna, he pointed out that over 27 percent of South Coast

Community Hospital's total occupancy comes from Leisure World - meaning that more patients come from there than from any other community in the hospital's service area.

Old-Timer Suggests Local Park Development

by McKay Mitchell

On Lomo Ridge, which lies in front of Old Saddleback, there are the headwaters of Serrano Creek, which flows south westerly, joining near the new freeway interchange with the San Diego Creek, from here San Diego Creek flows into Upper Newport Bay.

A short distance east of Serrano Creek is the headwaters of Oso Creek, which flows almost directly south past the site of the Saddleback College to join Trabuco Creek near the Mission, then onto the sea at Doheny Park.

This water course between Paseo De Valencia and Moulton Parkway has been cleared of undergrowth and sodded, with the beautiful old Sycamors dominating the area, it is a beautiful pleasant area.

At the present Moulton Parkway there is a road going off the right following the creek to the sea. To start, it is an unimproved road which soon becomes a wagon road passable with cautious driving. We don't recommend anyone traveling this road because it is across private property with some locked gates.

There, several miles of truly primitive area with large trees, native shrubs and bushes, and, of course, the wild animals of the region. The untouched geology is typical of the coast hills.

Soon this primitive isolated area will be crossed by the Pacific Coast Freeway, Aliso Road and Oso Parkway. It would be a worthwhile activity if this closed in area, could be preserved for the future.

It has been suggested that this be purchased and preserved in its now present state - the only improvements to be hiking and bridal trails. When these roads go through, the chance to acquire it as a part of the county parks system will be very small.

This is not my original idea, but it came out recently as an ice breaker speech at the Saddleback Toastmaster Club. Some action should be taken now to acquire this natural resource and supplement our already inadequate county park system.
